A & K Metaxopoulos is deeply embedded within the Greek legal landscape and is among the most experienced IP practices in the region. As the firm seamlessly navigates an array of IP issues, the team has made a name for itself in safeguarding trademarks and copyrights, which is where managing partner Kriton Metaxopoulos and department head Marilena Nikolaraki shine. Metaxopoulos boasts an illustrious career with over two decades of experience as a member of the Warner Music board of directors and a representative for major US film studios. A reliable choice for global disputes, his expertise is called on by domestic and international brands looking to navigate the local market. Nikolaraki, proficient in Greek, English and Italian, is a robust advocate before both local and international courts and administrative bodies. Pairing excellent commercial acumen and strategic prowess, she delivers a tailored service that meets her clients' legal and business needs.
